

Conservation Incentive Program November 2010 Trade Ally Newsletter

Cascade Natural Gas Conservation Incentive Program is here to stay!

The Energy Star federal tax credits for consumer energy-efficiency projects are ending December 31, 2010, but this does not affect the Cascade Natural Gas Conservation Incentive program. We will continue to help home and business owners implement conservation measures by offering cash incentives to our residential, commercial and small industrial customers.

Why Wait? Insulate.

Help your customers enjoy a more comfortable, energy-efficient home this winter with insulation. Having adequate insulation is an essential part to the energy-efficiency formula and is probably the most cost effective way to trim heating costs. Combined with proper sealing, insulation can save your customers up to 20 percent on their annual heating and cooling costs. Cascade Natural Gas can help offset costs by offering incentives of up to $0.45 per square foot on qualified insulation projects. Helping your customers keep their energy costs down while reducing their impact on the environment—now that's customer service.

Help Us Help You!

As a Cascade Natural Gas trade ally, we want to supply the tools and materials you need to help your customers conserve energy in their businesses and homes. To ensure we are offering our trade allies the best support, we want to hear from you! Click here to complete a quick survey about our current trade ally program. This survey is anonymous.

Attention! Insurance changes

Due to the recent changes in the Conservation Program we are requiring that all trade allies submit a revised copy of their insurance policy listing Lockheed Martin as additionally insured. Please fax your updated policy to 1.877.671.2998 or email conserve@cngc.com by December 31, 2010.
